

And step by step, since time began,
I see the steady gain of man.

John Greenleaf Whittier

And the purple grains of man whisper
through my hour glass hands, Convincing me to spend my time in dreaming.

—Janis Ian

Only in our minds can we seek and salvage the last remaining traces of our being. To be stripped of our thoughts is to be forced to submit to the will of those who derive their power from our weakness. We alone will be held responsible for this defeat, and no one will be able to come to our aid once the process is complete. Perhaps no one will recall being forwarned; perhaps memory itself will have lost all value. To this most important of freedoms—the freedom of thought—is this book dedicated.

CUSTODIAL STAFF

Angela Zurawiecki:

And now here is my secret, a very simple secret: It is only with the heart that one can see rightly what is invisible to the eye.

— Antoine de Saint-Exupery

Joan Mary D'Alessio:

*We look before and after,
And pine for what is not;
Our sincerest laughter
With some pain is fraught;
Our sweetest songs are those that tell of saddest thought.*

— Shelley

John King:

"I'd rather learn from one bird how to sing than teach ten thousand stars how not to dance."

Erma Riccardi:

*"Why live without humor, smiles, and laughter?
Fill your life with color and music, because music is to the ear as color is to the eye."*

Sheila Carter:

"Life has so much to give reach out ... live!"

Janice Patlock:

"What you will be you are now becoming."

L.R. Collins:

"Smiles are contagious! Try."

Yvonne Goyins:

"Happiness adds and multiplies when divided by others."

Rusty Hines:

*"Do it tomorrow—
You've made enough mistakes today!"*

Anne Mazeika:

*A little love, a little trust,
A soft impulse, a sudden dream,
And life as dry as desert dust,
Is fresher than a mountain stream.*

— S.A. Brooke

David Melchiono:

*"I'm going soon to new worlds,
Prepare my jaded sails,
To travel, move, upward fly,
To find the greeness of my mind."*

Julian Fischer:

*'Hitch your wagon to a star,'
Said Emerson profound
But I advise you now and then
To drive it on the ground.*

— Musgrove

John Cafone:

*I burn my candle at both ends;
It will not last the night.
But oh my foes and oh my friends
It gives a lovely light.*

—Edna St. Vincent Millay

Ethel Hayward:

Be willing to give your best before expecting it of others.

—Anon

Susan Merlucci:

"Confucius says . . . too much!"

Nannette Adams:

La parfaite valeur est de faire sans temoins ce qu'on serait capable de faire devant tout le monde.

—La Rochefoucauld

Katherine Banks:

I should like to spend the whole of my life in traveling abroad, if I could anywhere borrow another life to spend afterwards at home.

—Hazlett

Carolyn Johnson:

Be ashamed to die until you have won some victory for humanity.

—Thomas Mann

Eugene Foley:

Think: All men make mistakes, but a good man yields when he knows his course is wrong, and repairs the evil. The only crime is pride.

—Sophocles

Edna Bailey:

Our deeds still travel with us from afar, and what we have been, makes us what we are.

—George Eliot

John Tonero:

"Education is just something you owe to yourself."

Ira Cohen:

A learned blockhead is a greater blockhead than an ignorant one.

—Benjamin Franklin

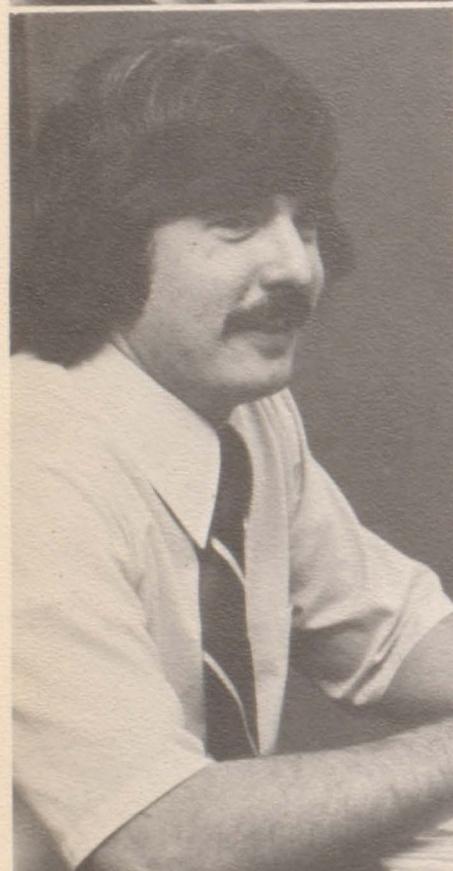

Joseph Russo:

. . . and the things which I believe in are no longer quite enough, the nights are now much longer, and the daylight's not so strong.

'It may indeed be fantasy, when I Essay to draw from all created things
Deep, heartfelt, inward joy that closely clings;
And trace in leaves and flowers that round me lie
Lessons of love and earnest piety.
So let it be; and if the world rings
In mock of this belief, it brings Nor fear, nor grief, nor vain perplexity.
So will I build my alter in the fields,
And the blue sky my fretted dome shall be,
And the sweet fragrance that the wild flower yields
Shall be the incense I will yield to Thee,
Thee only God! and thou shalt not despise
Even me, the priest of this poor sacrifice.'"

The Vailsburg Viking Football Team had a very successful season this year. Their 6-3 record was the second-best in Vailsburg's history. Several games were quite outstanding such as the one against Irvington High which was won in the third quarter on a touchdown by Marion Wingo. The win was particularly significant because of the traditional rivalry between the two schools. Another noteworthy game was the contest between Vailsburg and Weequahic which the Vikings pulled out 8-7 on a 2-point conversion after a late touchdown. Vailsburg's final game of the season was played against West Side. The Vikings romped 35-zip. Bruno Saverino and Robert Waters were then named to the 1st team — All-County. Bruno was also named to the 3rd team — All City. Marion Wingo and Arto Cato were named to the 2nd team — All City. This concluded an impressive season for the Vailsburg Football Team.

SOCER

This year, the Vailsburg Viking Soccer Team completed their season with a 13-3-1 record. The Vikings took 2nd place in the Newark City League, losing the city title in a close game with East Side. Other outstanding games were with Barringer, Irvington Tech, and Arts High. Nestor Paslawsky and Paul Bianchini played well all year and were named to the 1st team—All City. Nestor made 3rd team—All County and Paul made 2nd. Alem Rodrigues, Mark Paslawsky, and Lionel Davis made 2nd team—All City.

This year's Viking harriers, coached by Fred Engel and led by Co-Captains, Reggie Clark and Jerry Staggers, had a fairly good season. In dual meets this year, the two runners finished either 1st, 2nd, or 3rd. Staggers set a school record for 2.8 miles at West Side Park. In the Newark City Cross-Country Championship meet, Clark set a school record for 3.1 miles at Branch Brook Park with a clocking of 15:44 and finished in eighth place. Staggers finished close behind with a time of 15:46 for tenth place.

This year, the Vailsburg Viking Basketball Team had an excellent season. Their 14-8 record doesn't tell the real story because most of their losses were against Group 4 schools. They finished 2nd in the City League with an 8-4 record. The team was invited to play in the State Tournament where they won the first game but were eliminated in the second round by West Orange, a very tough team. The outstanding player this year was JoJo Walters who led the team in scoring, with a 25 point average. Walters scored 40 points or more in several games and made the 2nd team — All City.

WRESTLING

This year the Vailsburg Viking Wrestling Team finished the season in the winning column. They had an impressive 8 — 4 record and finished third in the city meet. Vailsburg beat Central 48 — 24 in a match which was actually closer than the score indicates. Paterson East Side fell to the Vikings 36—20 in another close match. Early in the season the wrestlers wiped out Shabazz 66—6. Several members of the team put on excellent performances this year. Wayne Taya and Steve Basiakos finished the year by taking 1st in the city tournament. Basiakos took a 2nd in the district tournament and Taya took a 3rd. Kevin Waters and Greg Pizzi both took 2nd in the city, Waters a 3rd in the district, and Pizzi a 4th.

Track is a multi-faceted sport which can offer a large amount of self-satisfaction from a great deal of hard work. Last year, the Vailsburg High track team won the State Championship. Although a few of our star runners graduated, we still had some of the best runners in the state, in addition to the prospect of several bright new-comers. With hard work and diligent application of skills, the team hoped to have another shot at the State Championship. The two new coaches, Mr. Fleming and Mr. Kennedy, did their best in helping the team to achieve their goal.

Golf is not one of our most popular spectator sports, yet it is a game, that for the most part has to be played to be enjoyed. It takes great concentration, timing, and much practice. After this is achieved, it is possible for one to appreciate the diligent hard work others have put into this vibrant game.

TENNIS

A sport which has enjoyed immense popularity in recent years, tennis, is no stranger to Vailsburg High School. The '75 Team which was comprised of mainly underclassmen, underwent a program to adequately familiarize them with the game. This was necessary in order to pick out the starting players, many of whom would be returning the following year.

New Jersey Autumn

Apple crisp air, golden glow-bright hues.
Scavenger canines seek shelter
from the winter.
Small people scuffle and pile
the newly independent clothing of the trees
Red cheeks,
pumpkins,
plaid skirts,
bold smiles.

. . . And it makes my feet skip,
and my mind clear,
and my fingers feel
when I see the leaves floating down to my open arms.

—Mel

Whenever you smile, the shadow of tenderness
Lights up your face,
Like a baby—who can't express
His feelings of happiness.

Of Man and God

Foolish is the man who looks upward to find his God
Blind is the man who looks forward and does not see
Damned be the man who does not look

Speechless be the man who sings the Lord's Song
But does not know the reason why he sings

Crippled be the man who does the Word of God
But does not use his heart as the power

Deafness be to the man who speaks the Word of the Almighty
But does not hear the Call which is his own.

— Jerry Losowyj

Me

As long as I live
I shall always be
My-Self and no other,
Just me.

Like a flower,
For it's hour—
Primrose or pink,
Or a violet—
Sunned by the sun,
And with dewdrops wet.

Always just me.
Till the day comes on
When I leave this body
It's all then done
And the spirit within it
Is gone.

It's a Sad Day

It's a bad day, yes it's a sad day
For leaving.
The clouds have come now,
Yes the sky is grey now.
What to do now that times have changed?
Where shall the question why be answered?
All is gone,
Nor more happiness, just sorrow.
It is a just reward
For when things go wrong.
It's a bad day, yes it's a sad day
For leaving.

— Jerry Losowyj

Movement and Change

We search for ourselves
through movement,
not change
yet we know the difference

Seeking out momentary desires unplanned reactions,
without direction

Anxiety! We've lost touch with our inner selves

We are alienated.

— Irma Nodarse

If I were to die tomorrow
My life incomplete,
Today I would wish to be with you,
Complete me.

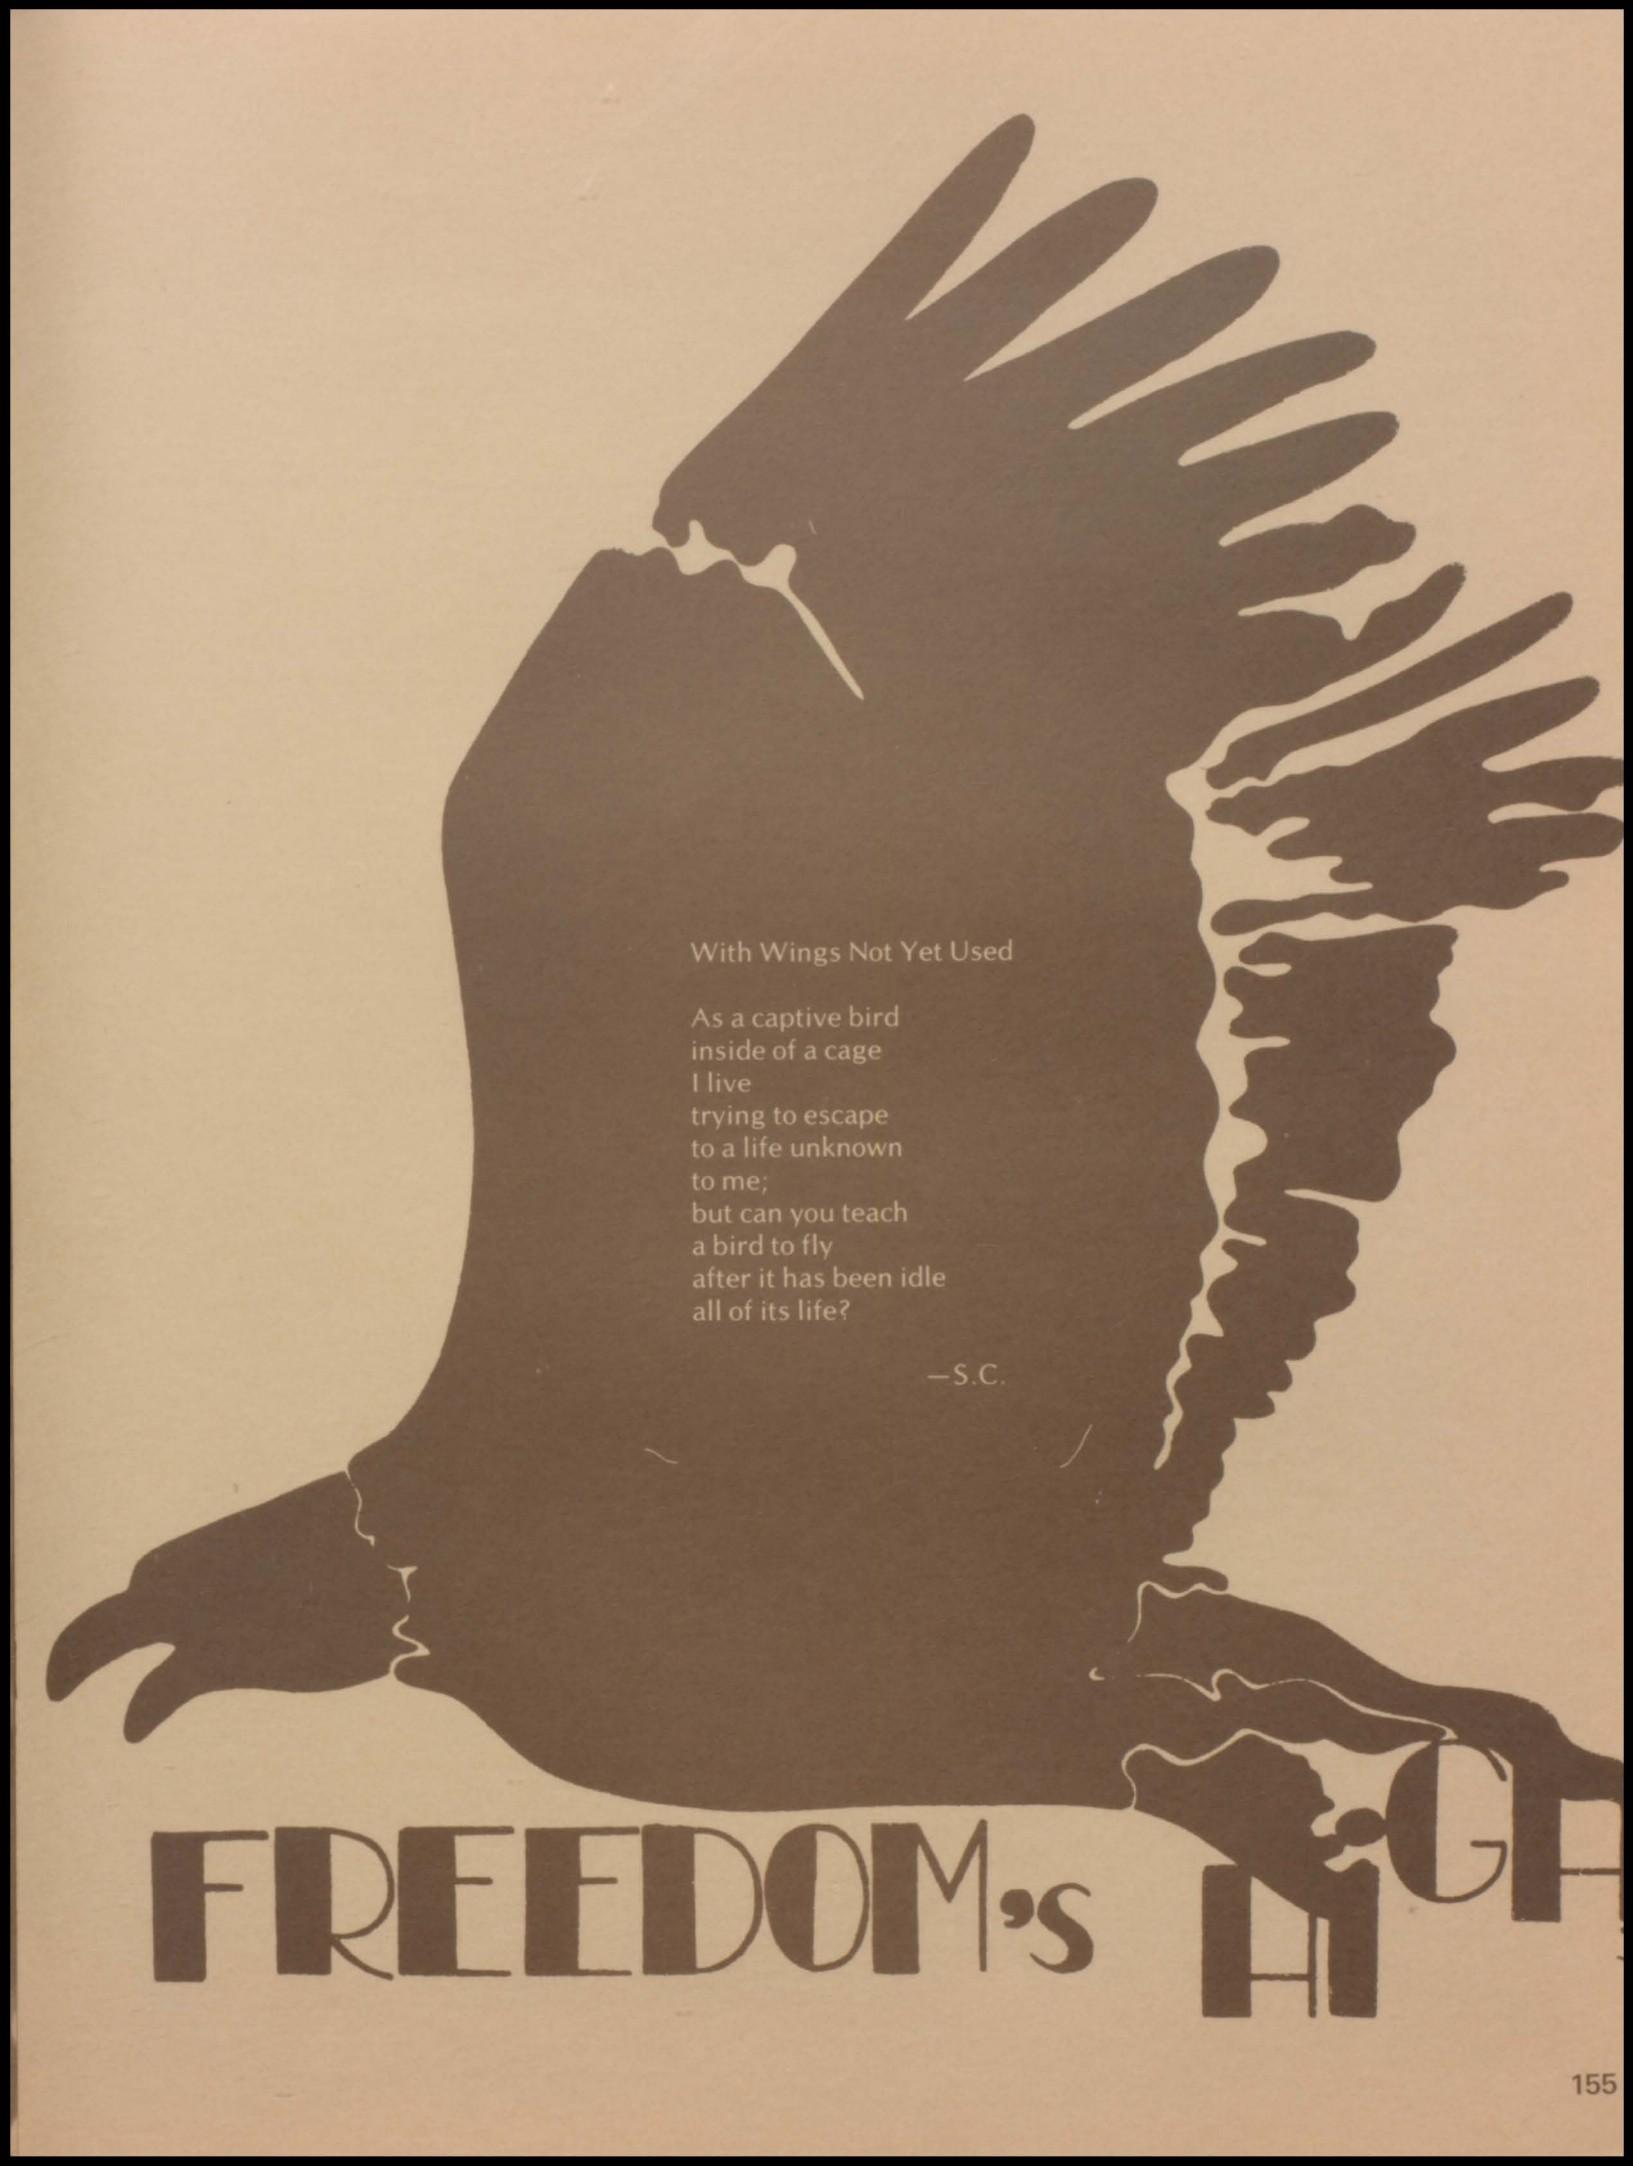

—S.C.

Words

I have nothing to give the world . . . but my words.
and words are so inadequate!
If I were to say, "I am happy."
What does that mean?
nothing to someone who has never known the feeling.
"Happy" as a word is empty.
as a feeling it may be beautiful.
But who will ever know?
the word is nothing.
Words are like a suit of armor.
Ancient knights were as well protected by their armor,
As feelings are hidden by words.

—Mel

With Wings Not Yet Used

As a captive bird
inside of a cage
I live
trying to escape
to a life unknown
to me;
but can you teach
a bird to fly
after it has been idle
all of its life?

A Silent Voice Through the Night

"I beg of you,"
said the sparrow
as he spoke to the sky.
"Please listen,"
said he,
shivering gently in the darkness.

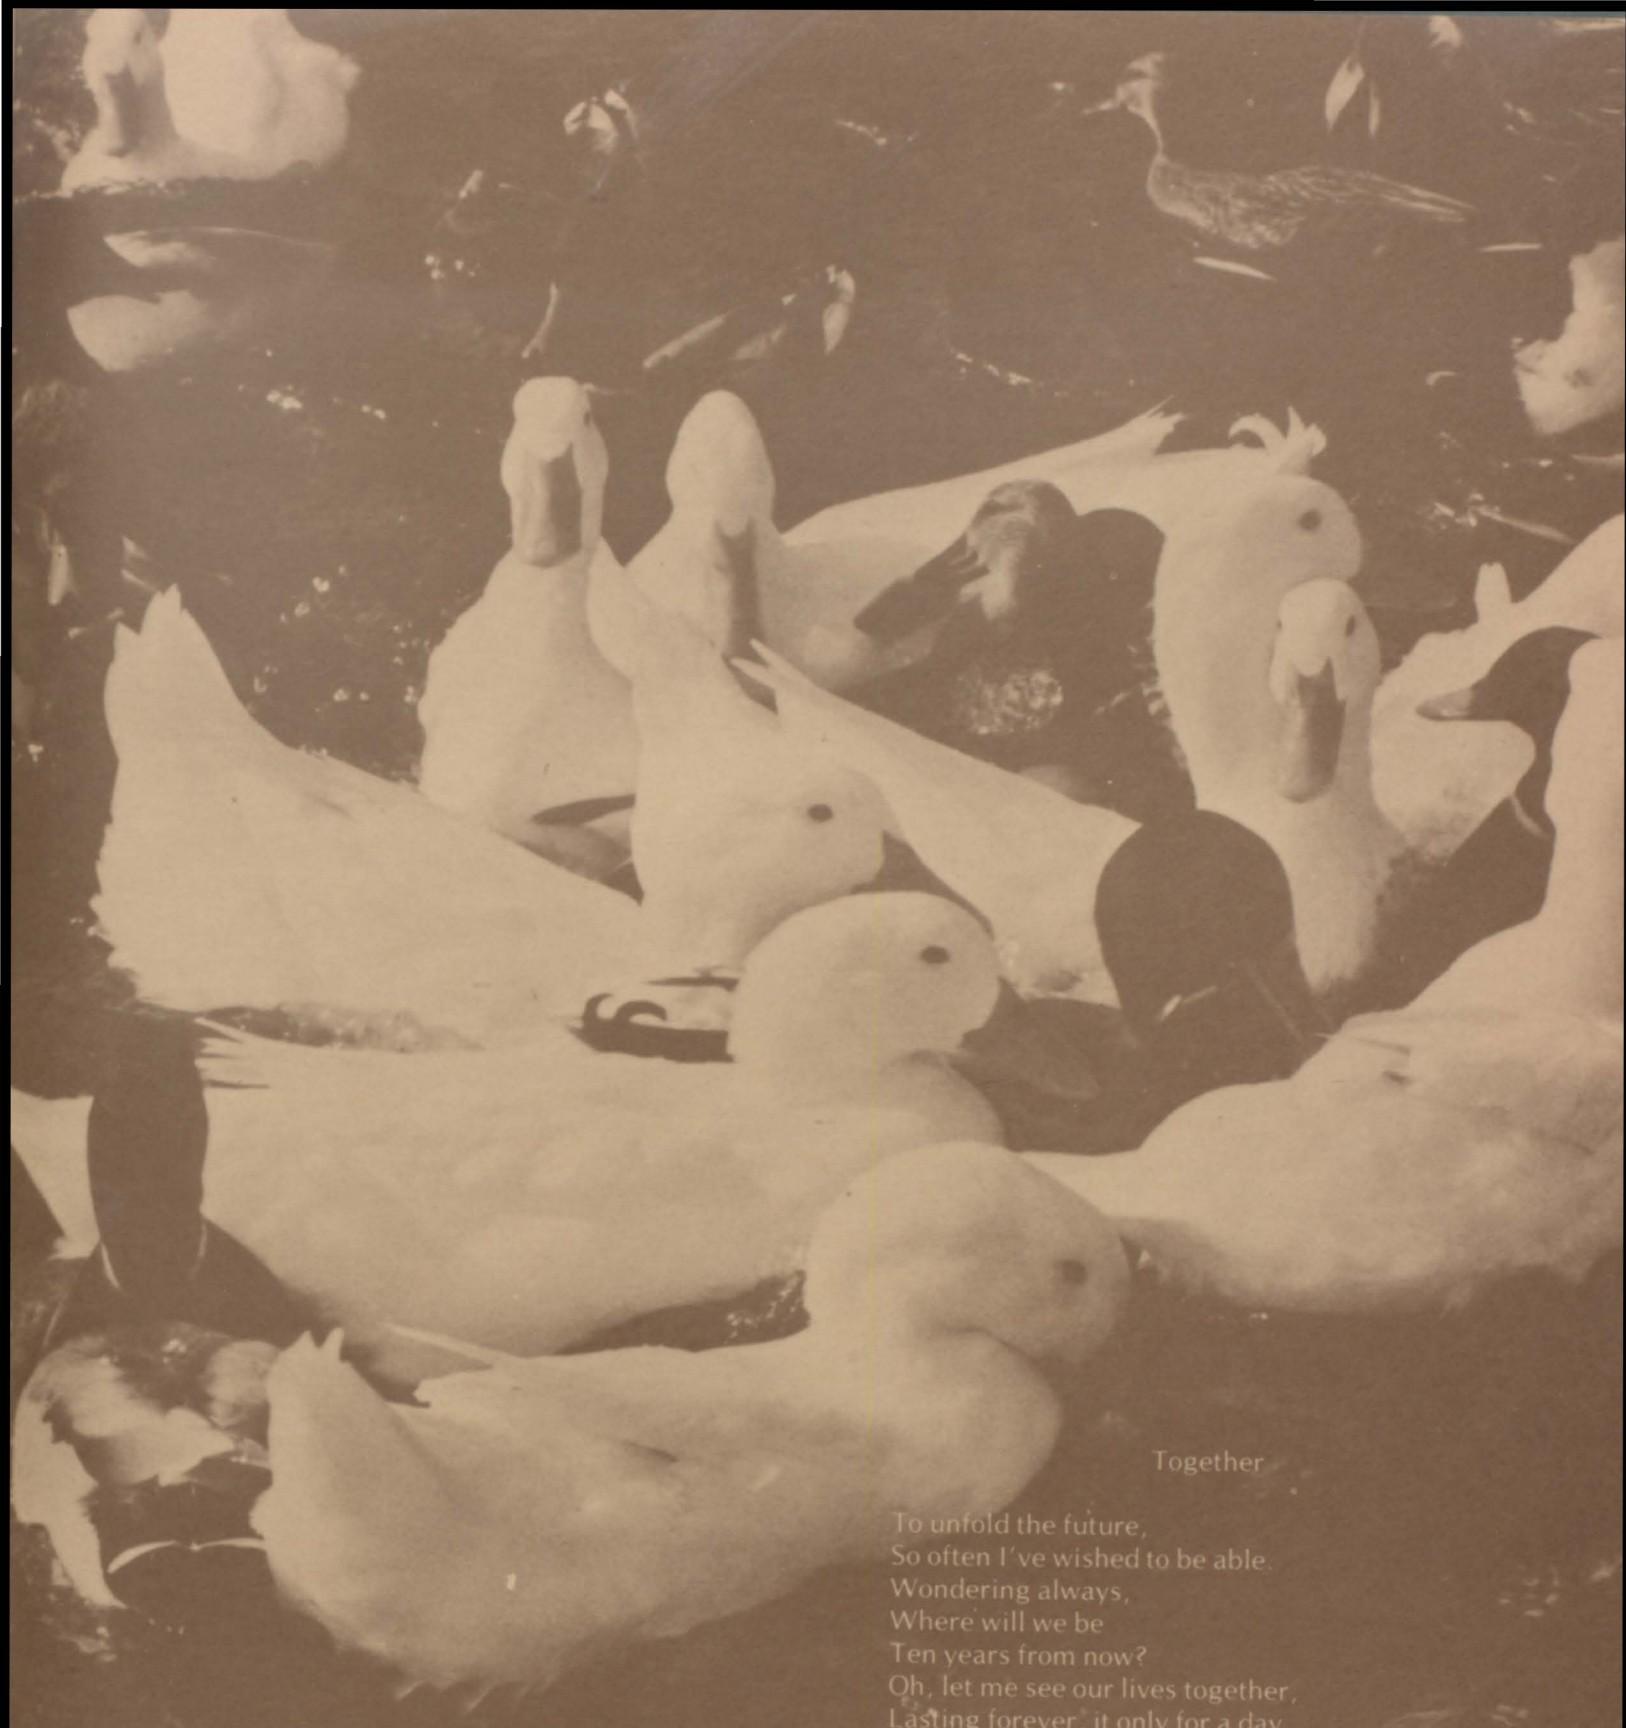

The tiny bird,
perched upon a solitary branch,
huddled among the snowflakes,
cried out,
"Tell me,
why has the sun fled from your heights,
and the leaves,
once green and alive,
have long since perished?"

"Why," asked the bird
"have the days grown dark,
the nights piercing cold,
and my friends all flown South?
But I remain here, in need of you.
Are you really there?"

"Please answer", whimpered the bird,
But not a word was spoken.
In silence, he stood waiting,
yet not a sound was to be heard.
And as the snowflakes softly lit upon his tiny body,
the weak sparrow cried himself to sleep,
lonely and forgotten,
surrounded by the darkness
and the quiet thudding of falling snow.

To carry on all through the years,
A heavy heart and shed no tears.
To think of love that now is past,
A time when you were in my grasp.
It seemed so real and yet a dream,
Life with you, to plan and scheme.
It was my fault; I know not why,
Somehow I let our love slip by.
You turned away; your heart ran cold,
And yet your reason's still untold.
I think of you and wonder why,
A love like ours was meant to die
And end it did; but still I try
To understand the reasons why.
Someday I know we'll meet again
Or do I dare to dream? Was that the end?

Together

To unfold the future,
So often I've wished to be able.
Wondering always,
Where will we be
Ten years from now?
Oh, let me see our lives together,
Lasting forever, it only for a day.

To give you a day,
All the moments I've wished you were here with me—
Just to know.
We'd run through the woods
And lie on a deserted beach
Just waiting for sunrise,
And get lost in a crowd
And be happy.
Together, forever.

With Open Eyes

The door at the top of the stairs
Leads to a place
Where excuses do not exist;
A land laden with happiness and regret.

You guide me into this unknown world
With eyes closed to the dangers it possesses;
Each step I take brings me closer to you
And closer to the destruction of our lives.

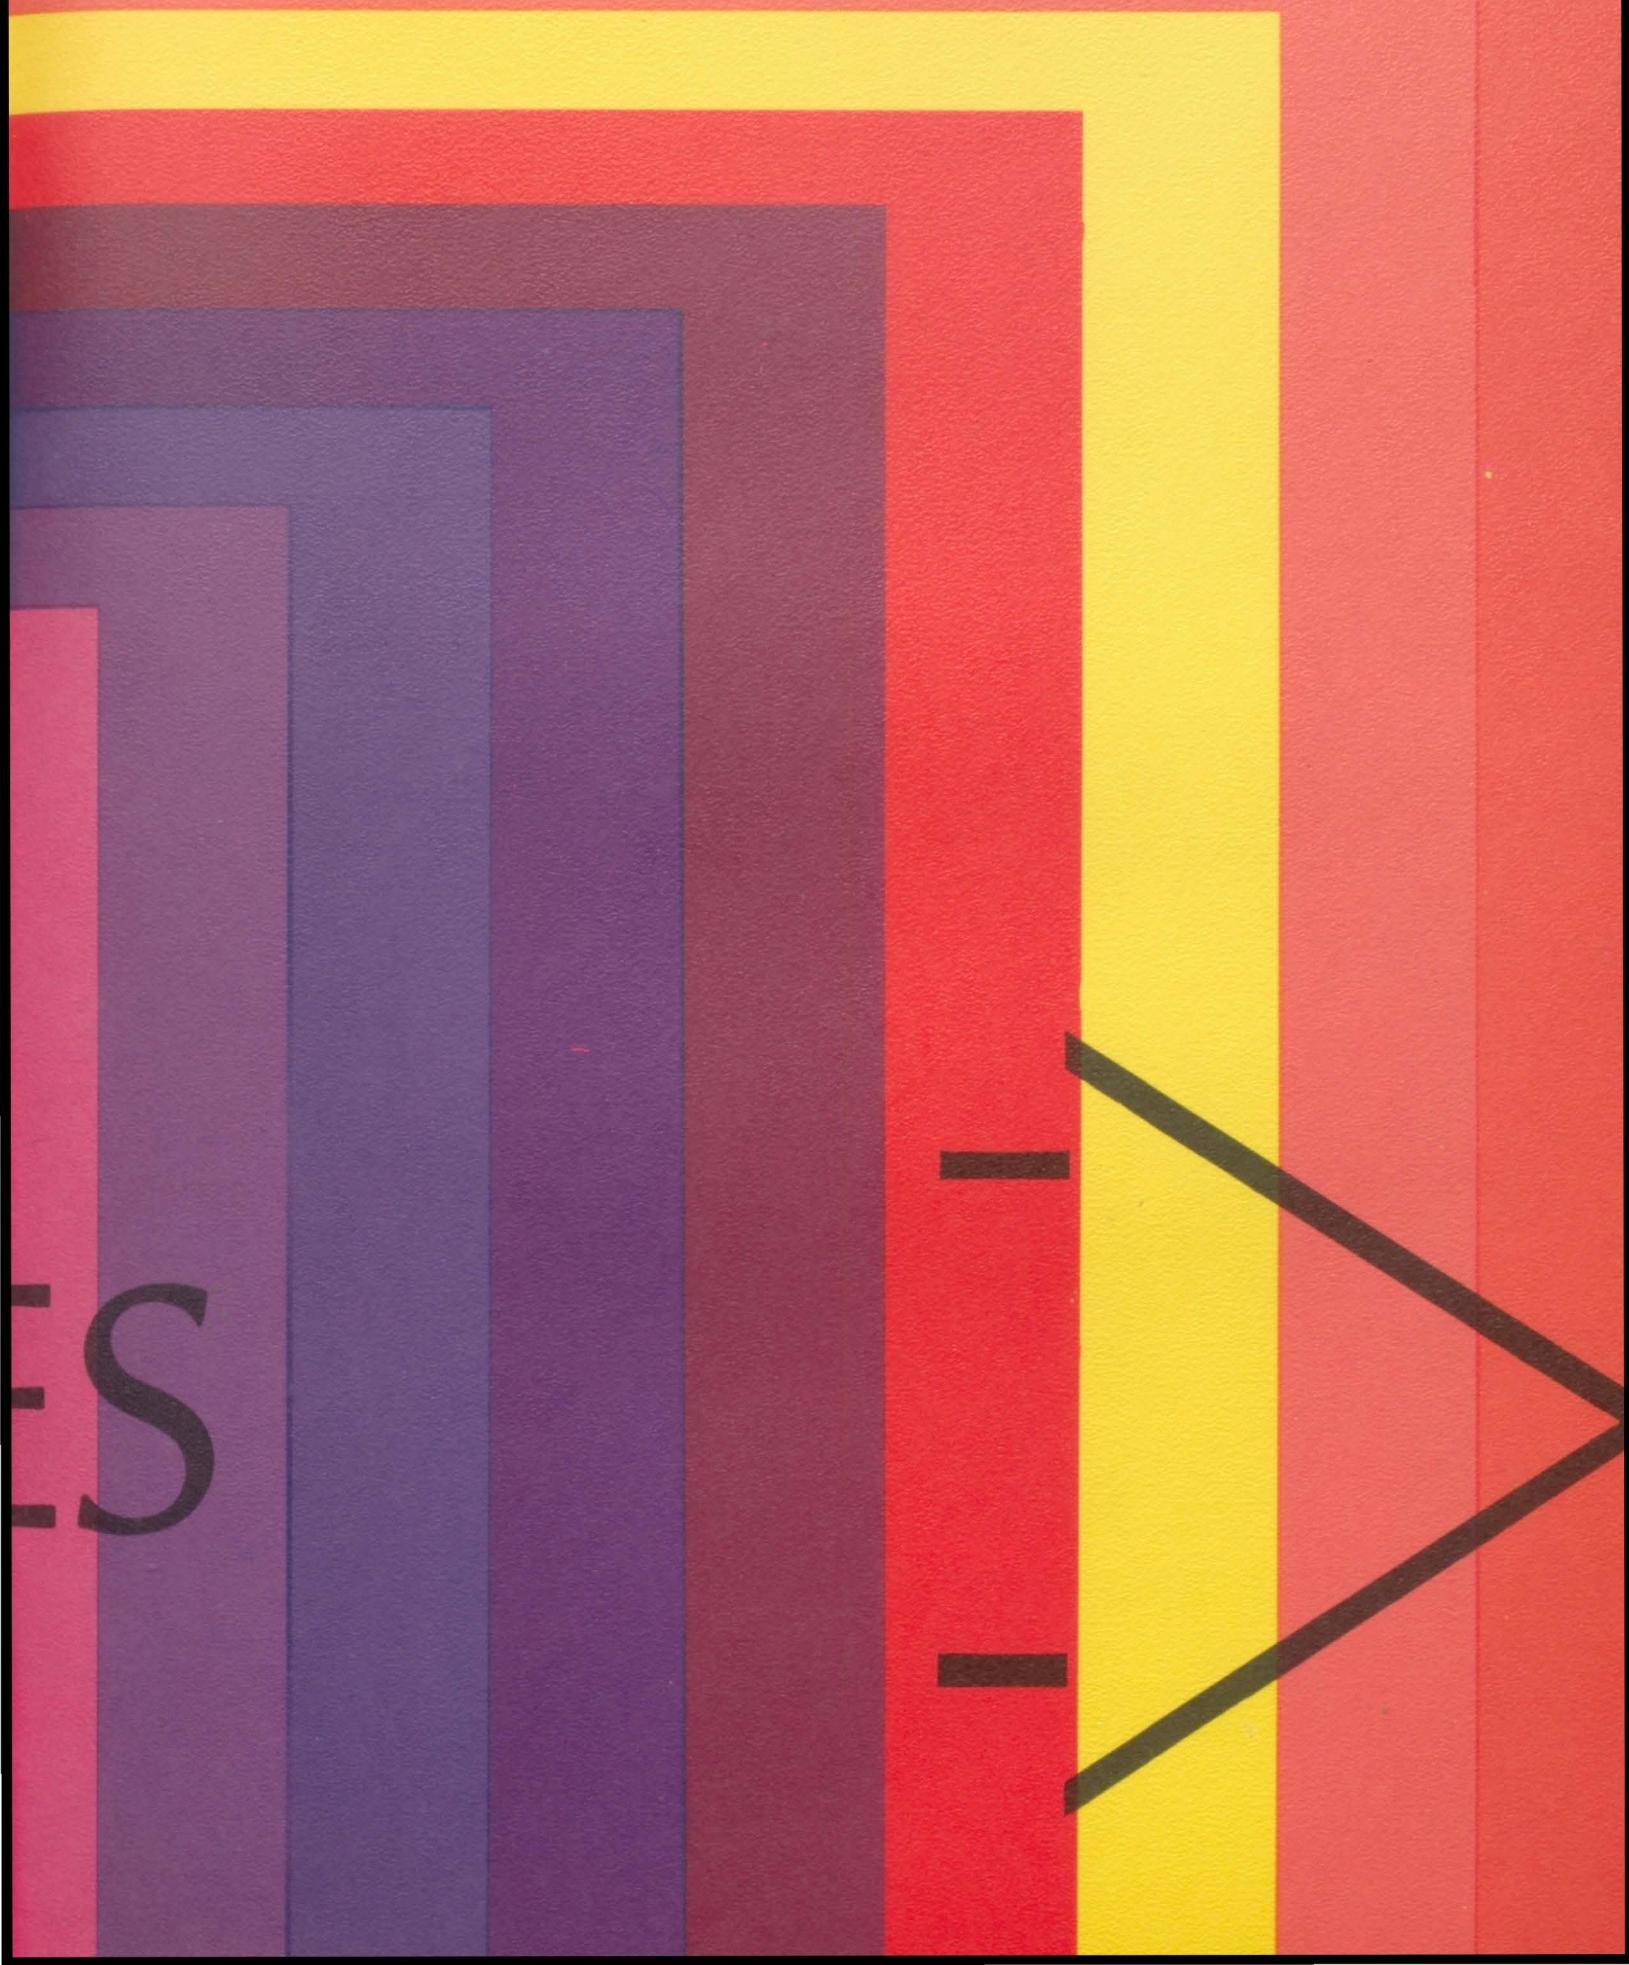

The door is ajar—
But I dare not go in;
Into a world of no return,
A world I cannot avoid.

ANTHONY RINALDIS

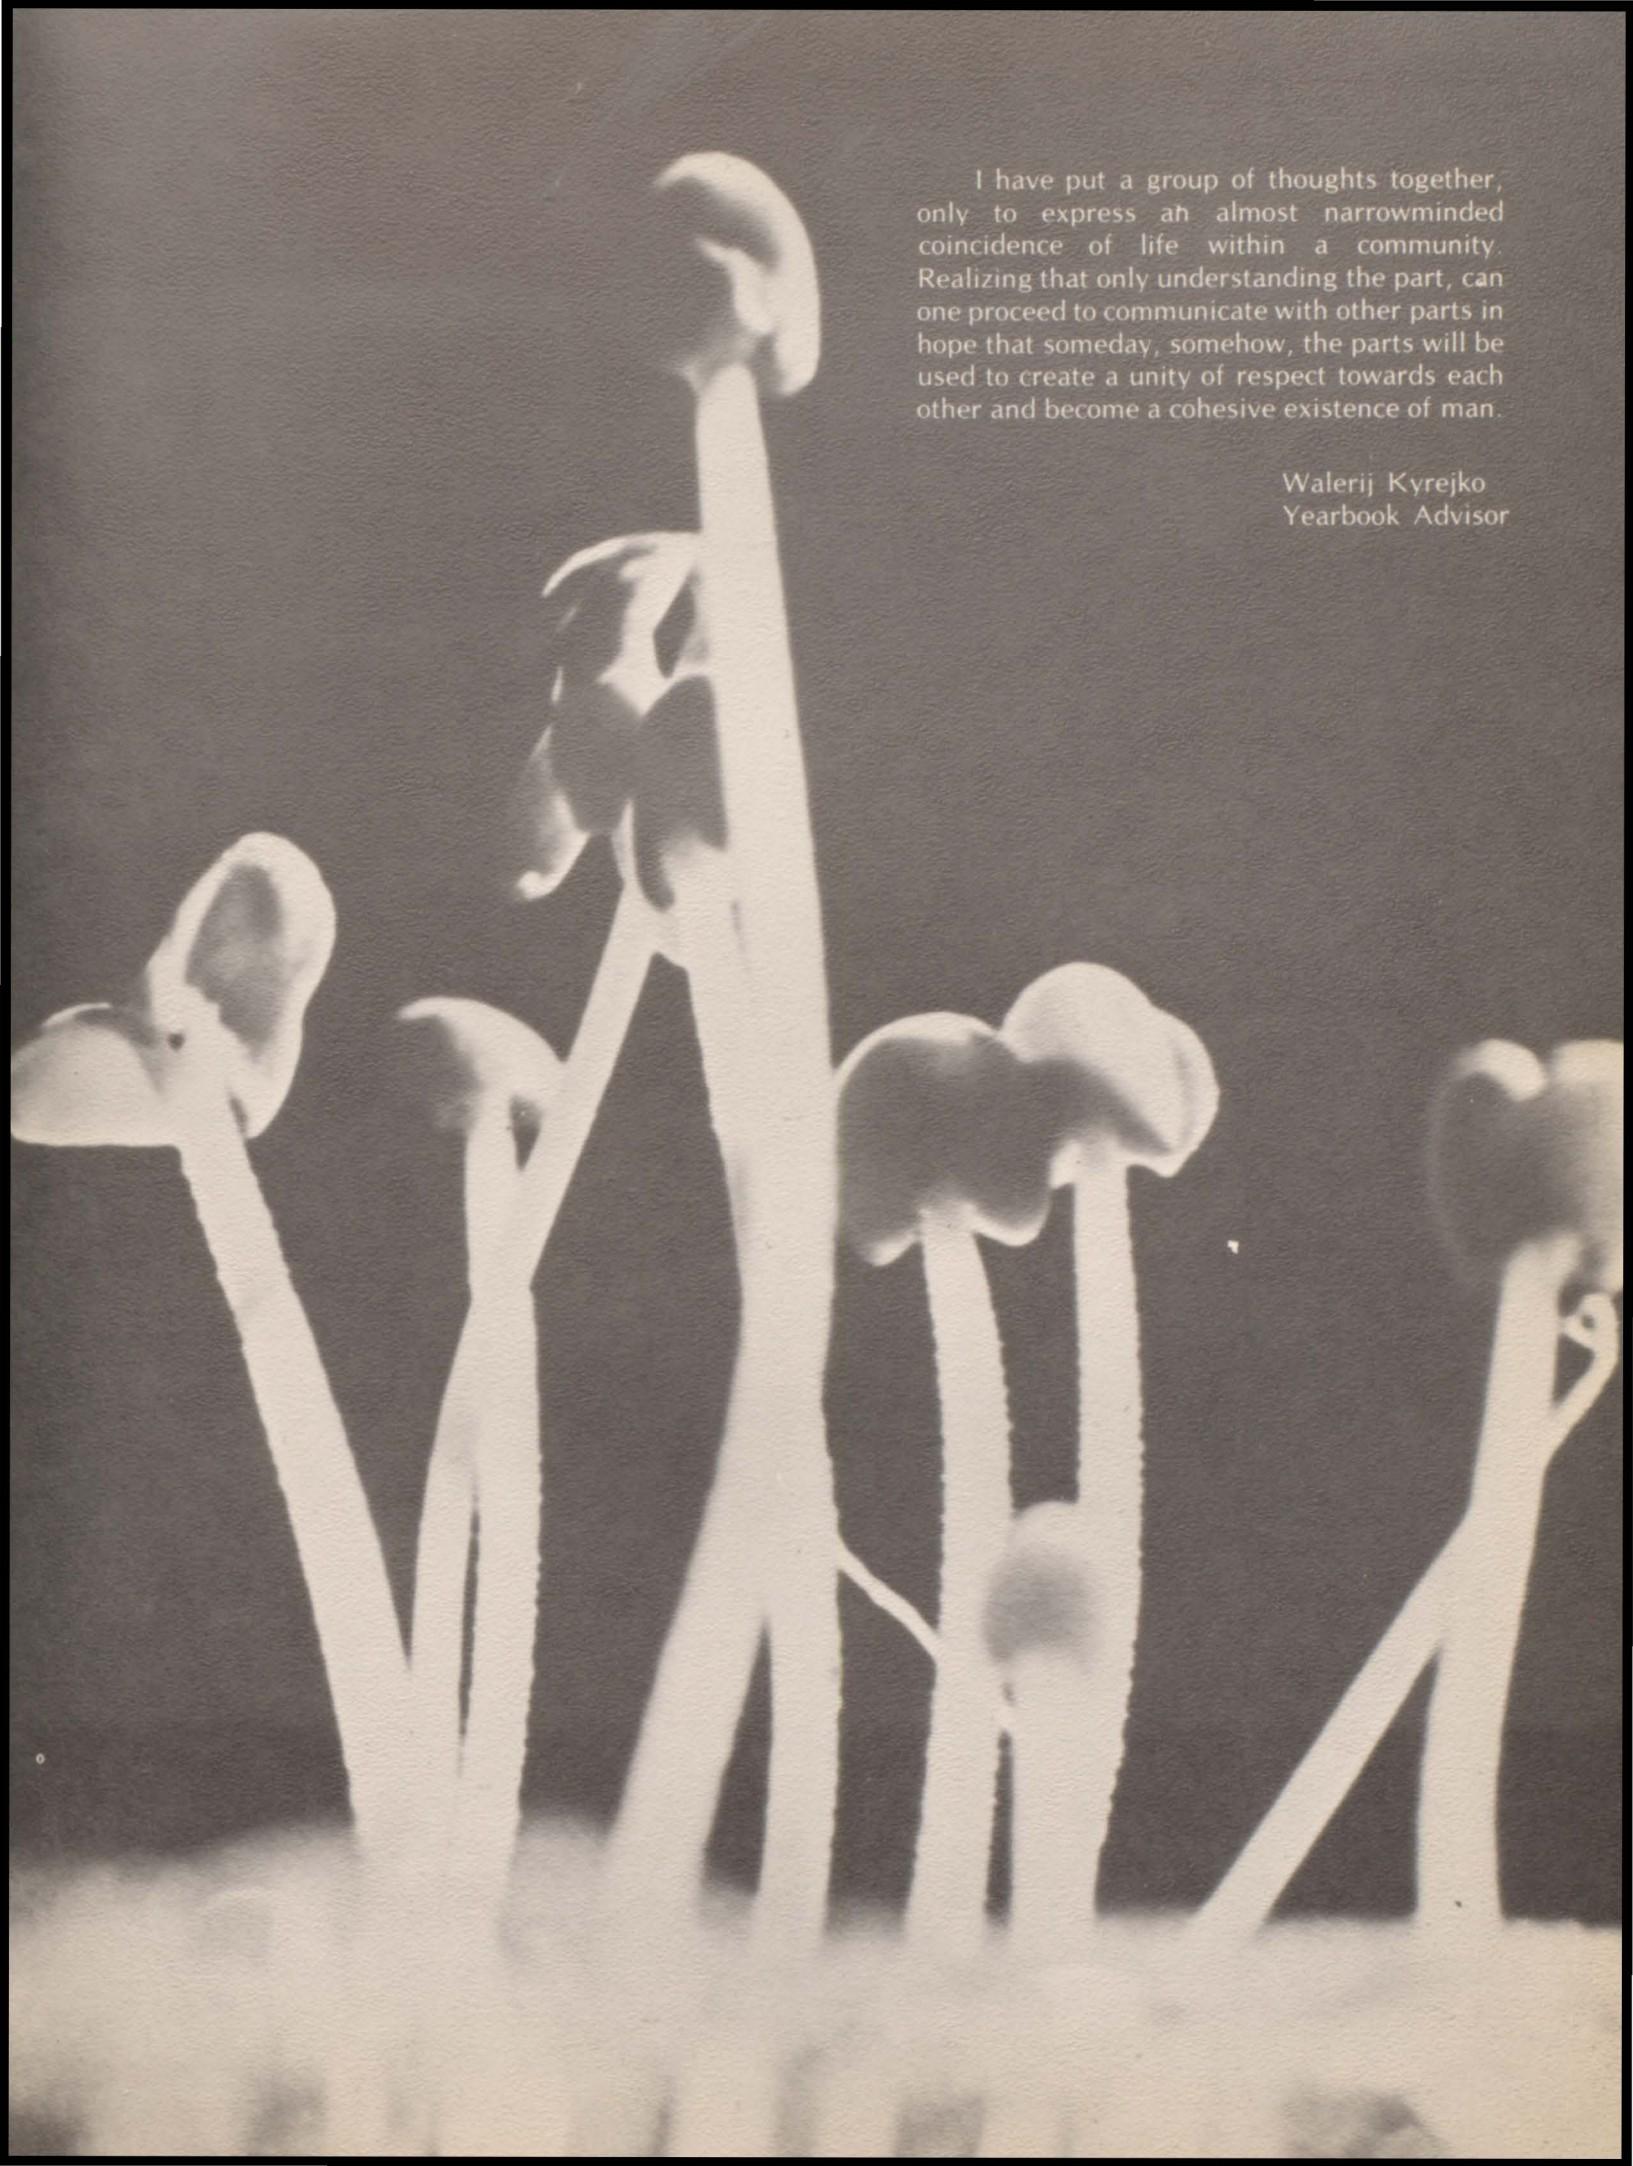

We have undergone the impossible. We have tackled unbelievable obstacles and, in our eyes, we have come out victorious. Along the way people have helped, others hurt. But there are no hard feelings. We have reached our goal. We are glad it is over, but, if we tried again, it would still be fun. We could have done better, but it is too late now. We don't ask for sympathy or appreciation, only enjoyment.

I have put a group of thoughts together, only to express an almost narrowminded coincidence of life within a community. Realizing that only understanding the part, can one proceed to communicate with other parts in hope that someday, somehow, the parts will be used to create a unity of respect towards each other and become a cohesive existence of man.

Walerij Kyrejko
Yearbook Advisor

One of the so-called privileges of the editor of a literary form is to write an editorial, the purpose of which is to transmit an idea or opinion. I suppose that for my editorial, I could state my disapproval with the school, its current administration and policies, or perhaps I could speak of the tragic destruction of an already weak educational system through the mismanagement of funds. Like many editors-in-chief, I could focus my attention on the Yearbook itself, thanking all those who made it possible. Perhaps I could come up with a pseudo-philosophical statement stressing the importance of education.

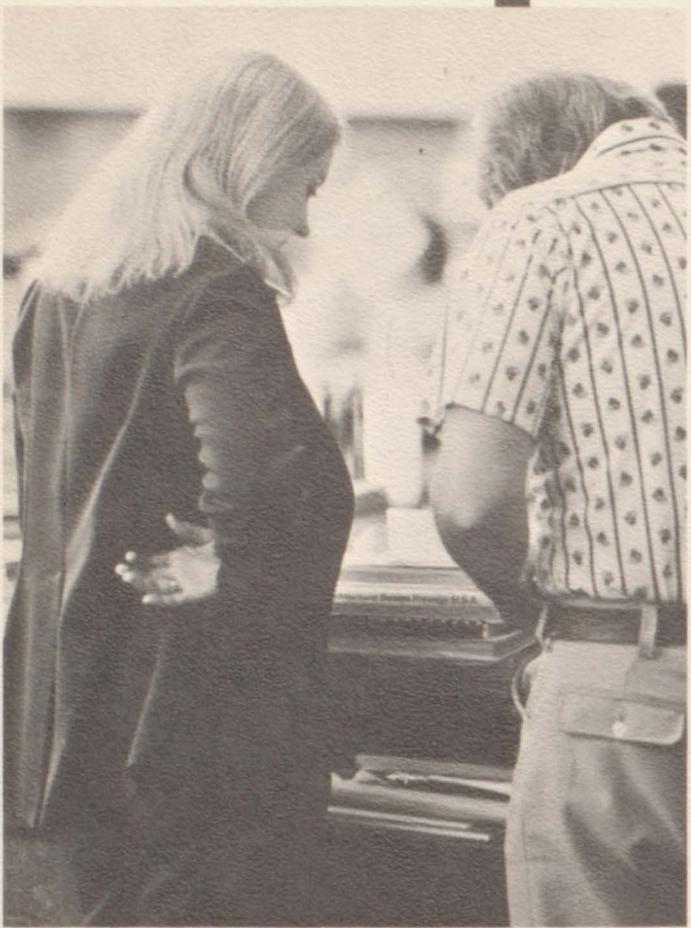

There is however, something of greater relevance to my life than merely the above mentioned details. As I look around, I see few people who are truly committed. Most of us lack a realization of the priorities of life. As the future leaders of this world, we cannot allow others to convince us that we need not decide what is of importance to us. We must have the courage to make some decisive moves, speaking out for what we believe in, in spite of the lack of popularity our views might receive.

This Yearbook was an attempt by few to reach many. Each page was created by people who worked their tails off for something they believed in something they felt was truly important. I cannot help but wonder how many people can honestly admit to the same.

So that's what it looks like!

Mr. Bowles, I'm too short to be propositioned.

Two all beef patties, special sauce, lettuce, cheese pickles . . .

North Pole, huh?!

Let me kiss it and make it better.

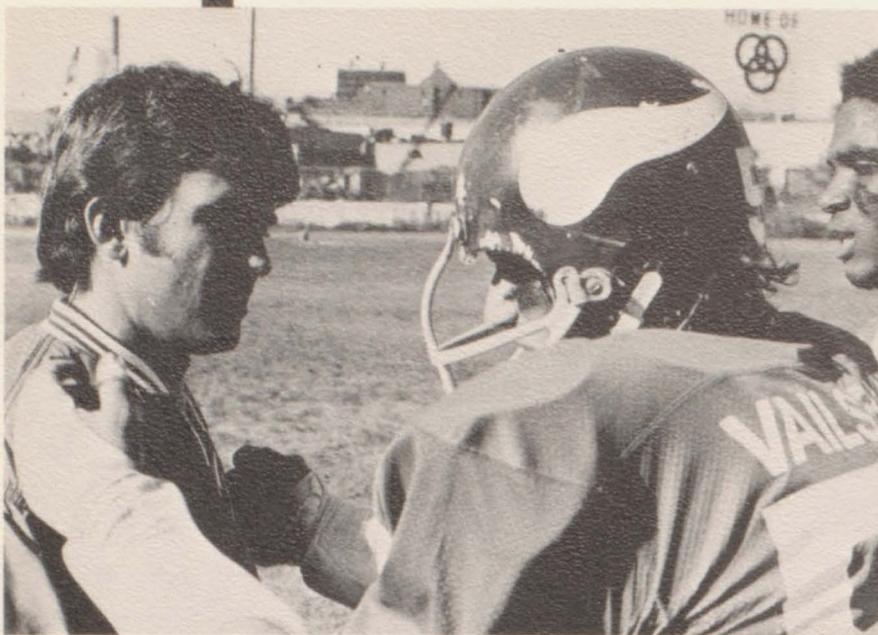

O.K., just one, but I hope my wife doesn't find out!

I don't mind the kiss but you wouldn't believe where she put the band-aid!

D'Alessia? . . . bah, humbug — Farry all the way!

Coach, I really gotta go to the bathroom—NOWWW!

Tell me, what's Mrs. Banks got that I haven't?

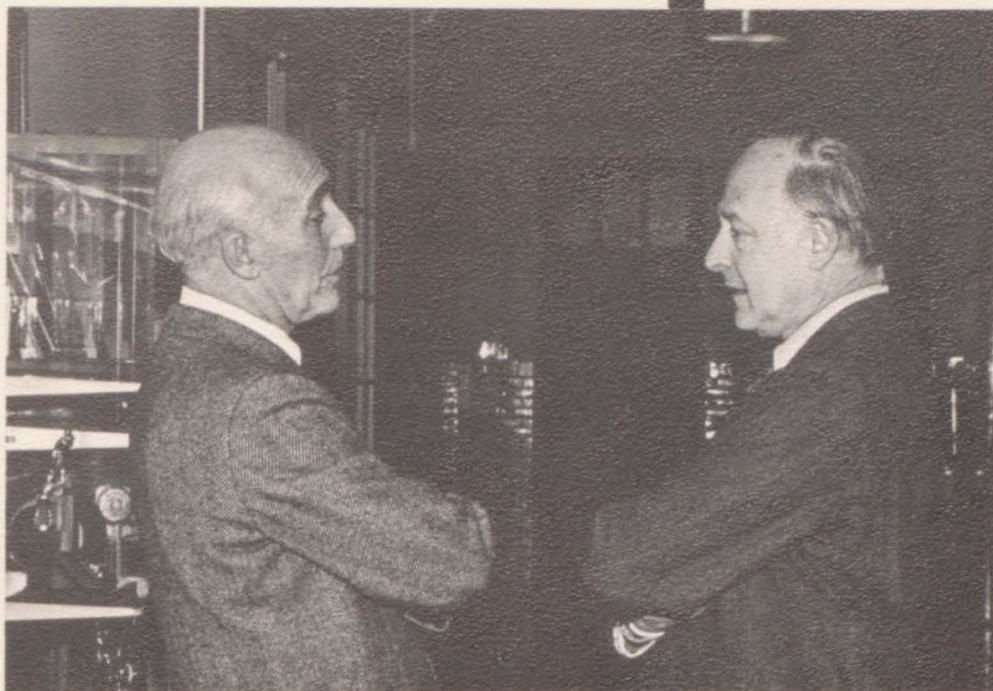

It says that he took a second. Too bad he was the only swimmer!

Hey Big Boy, come up and see me sometime.

John, did you get your "pink slip" yet? Yea Dog but I gave it to Mike.

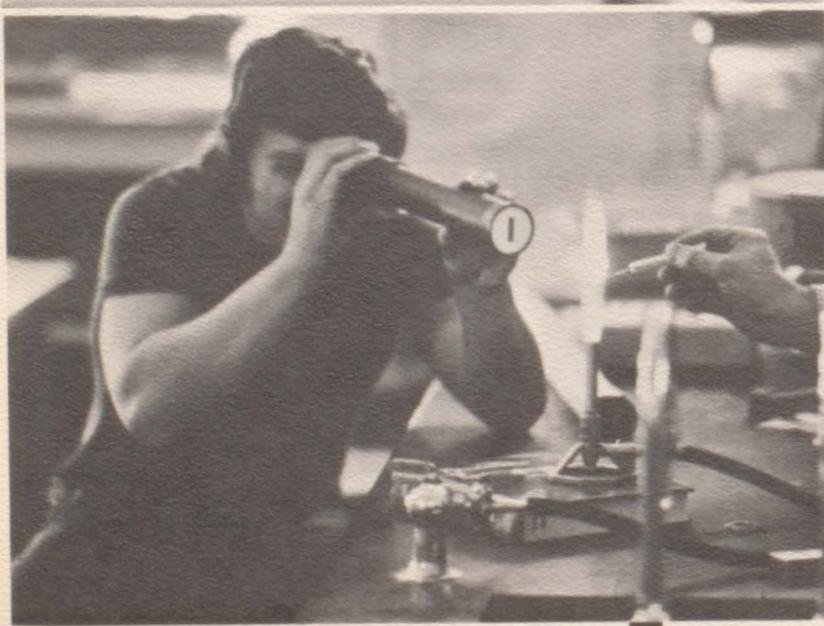

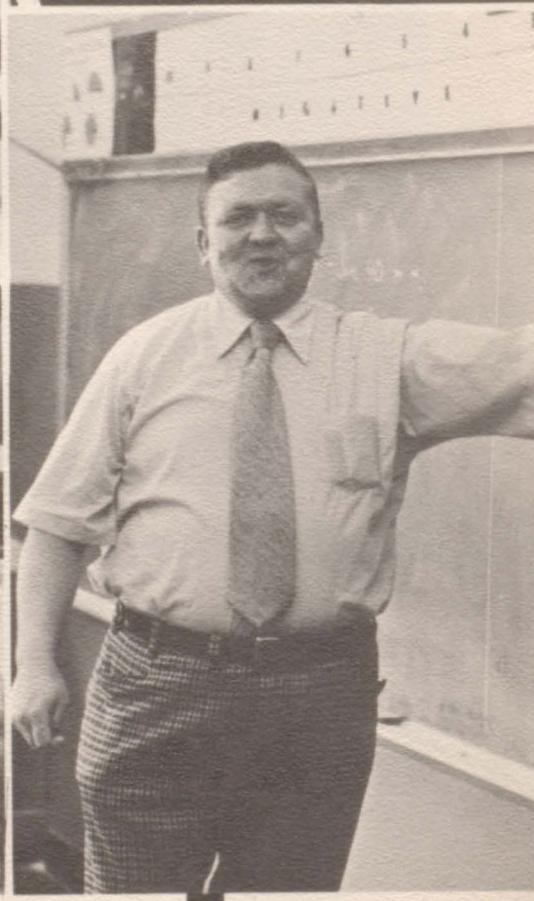

You want to know your mark?
Guess!

■ Michelangelo started this way too!

Ah, It's been three months— Finally!

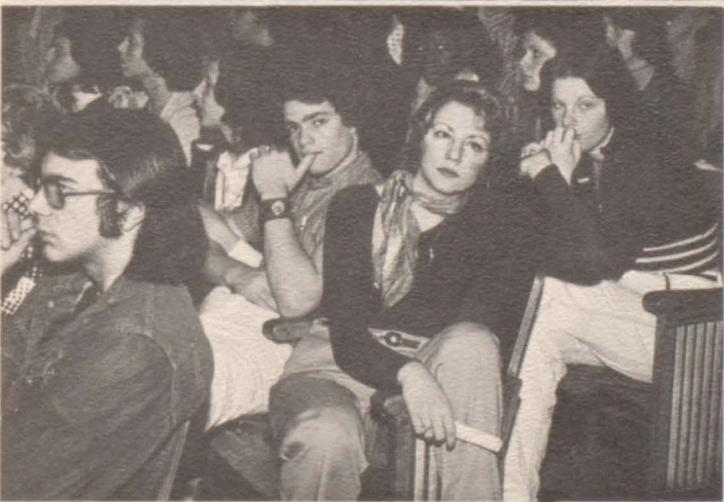

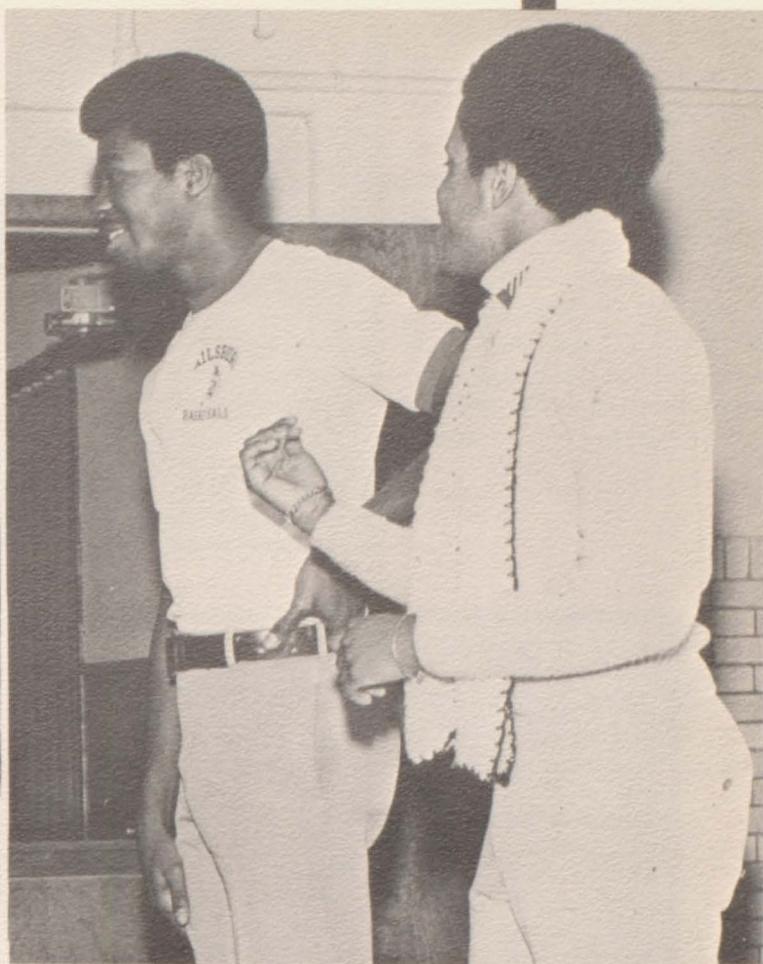

But Theresa, why are you sitting on Taylor's lap?

I'm not the Joe you used to know!

Take my cousin, for instance.

Che si dice, Bro?

I'd give anything for a fire drill!

I rolled this one myself.

The 1975 Valkyrian Staff would like to express its sincere gratitude to the Rinaldis Family for allowing us to invade their home and disrupt their lives. Without them, Laura wouldn't have had her homemade Italian bread, Sharon wouldn't have seen the sunrise, Anthony wouldn't have learned the first three bars of "Stairway to Heaven", Ronnie wouldn't have had his ego inflated, Bro Aaron wouldn't have jumped right in, but most of all, we all would have missed knowing one of the greatest families in the world.

Sharon
Laura
Aaron
Anthony

June Grads

Clerical

BE SURE! FEEL SECURE! Have a job in your pocket . . . BEFORE you graduate!

Yes, despite what you've been reading and hearing about the job market, Mutual Benefit Life Insurance has many clerical positions available for June Graduates:

- GENERAL CLERICAL • CALCULATORS
- TYPISTS • STENOS • SECRETARIES
- AND MORE!

To assure yourself of a job when you graduate, COME SEE US NOW! If you qualify we'll not only hire you . . . we will give you a choice of starting dates . . . right after graduation or after a short vacation. You pick the time and we'll hold your job open until then.

Why are we one of the relative few with openings? Because Mutual Benefit is a dynamic, progressive company that is continually growing. This constant growth plus our liberal promotion policy combine to provide many openings, most of them career-building positions. We offer good salaries, exceptionally fine benefits including our own cafeteria and parking lot and a convenient location near all transportation.

Come see us soon . . . after school, on a day off. OR call our Personnel Department at 624-6600, Ext. 1247 or 1288, for an interview appointment.
